Paramjit Anand at the Source of Light

Paramjit's 2009 trip

Southern Spain Hatha Yoga

July 31st - Aug 7th 2010

single room £425 (plus flight)

This delightful retreat is in a tiny hamlet, high in the mountains above Malaga and thirty minutes from the coast by car. The local scenery is stunning

There is a purpose built yoga circle in the shade of the trees on the mountainside. A second space is available between the buildings and it is also possible to do yoga indoors in the dining room with its full length panoramic windows and fantastic views.

Yoga with Paramjit Anand

My full name is Paramjit Anand, most people know me as Pam. I currently live in London and also spend several months of the year in Goa India, teaching Yoga and Well-being.

As a teenager I was introduced to the ancient practices of yoga and this is how my journey began. In 1998 I encountered the true experience of Yoga at the Sivananda Ashram in Kerala. Here I practised the 5 main principles of yoga and have continued my practice ever since completing the Sivananda teacher training course in 2003.

Since 2006 I have taught yoga and fitness full time and I have never been happier. My mission is to guide and support each individual on their journey of self discovery and a healthier life through regular practice of Asanas (yoga postures), Pranayama (breathing exercises), Relaxation, Meditation and General Wellbeing. Allow the light, the star that is within all of us to shine more brightly.

“Heal and transform the soul first: Then healing and transformation of every aspect of life will follow.”

Additional information

Sunbathing takes place by the oval pool, with its mosaic lining depicting leaping dolphins.

The relaxation area surrounding it is a natural sun trap. Lay on the sun-beds with a book and look down through the olive groves to the lake below you and far in the distance glimpse the glittering sea and occasionally Africa.

Four mountain bikes are on the premises, great for exploring the quiet roads and surrounding countryside, or visiting the next village.

Alternatively take your bike to the old railway line behind the retreat and cycle along it and across the hills, through fields of olive and almond trees and past picturesque old farm-houses.

Tennis, horse riding (one hour away), visits to the hot springs can all be arranged by your hosts

Richard and Betty, the new owners, have re-furbished everything for this season and also installed a juice bar, enlarged the yoga space and created some new 'chill-out areas, plus new diet options.

A short walk away is a local bar (picture below) with coffee, drinks and snacks, these are also available on site from the in-house bar.

Your basic holiday includes vegetarian, vegan or raw food diet options, with one night dedicated to a trip to a local restaurant where you can buy a Spanish meal for a modest price.

A large breakfast/brunch will be served after the morning yoga class and dinner after the evening yoga class.
